CITY COUNCIL.

Thursday evening last an adjourned meeting of the board of town trustees was held at which the following applications for liquor licenses filed at the previous meeting were presented. Geo Botsch, Wm. Williamson., V. Bernasque, W. J. Plump. Larrouy Bros., A. Cook, E. Anderson, A. F. Hofen, Jos. Rodgers, H. Anderson, E. F. Schumacher, G. Garcia, Chas. Impersani, Stafford Bros., R. R. Fleming, Jose Roza, Geo. A. Genocchio, E. F. Demartini, Wm. C. Wilson, H. S. Sears, Louis Braut, Chas. Long, B. Sheehan, Carl Plump, J. C. Barg, C. H. Offermann, W. H. Kinne. These applications were all granted with the exception of Wm. Williamson.

The application of Chas Luscher was taken up and on motion of Walker seconded by Foley the request was granted by the following vote: Walker, Havey and Foley.

The application of P. J. Foley was granted on motion of Walker seconde by Luscher, by the following vote: Walker, Havey and Luscher.

Wm. Williamson's application was taken up and rejected on the ground that the liquor ordinance allowed only twenty-eight saloons and permits to that number had been allowed.

The resignation of B. F. Cooper as trustee of the public library was received and accepted.

Carl Plump was elected library trustee for the unexpired term of Mr. Cooper, H. W. Walker and A. Kincaid to succeed themselves their term having expired.

It was ordered that all street cleanings be dumped into the public parks

The contract with L. Biols for street sweeping which had been prepared by Attorney Kincaid was read and the chairman authorized to execute the same

On account of the excessive speed with which automobiles are driven through the streets of this city, it was ordered that the speed limit is set at ten miles an hour and be reduced to four miles at sharp curves or bridges. It was also ordered that signs be posted at Finger's bridge, Five Points and at the easterly end of Phelps street.

W. J. Dingee, through his superintendent, Mr. Cameron, applied to the board to have them take measures to have the Spring Valley Water Co. lower their pipes at crossings of creeks along the county road. Mr. Dingee promises if this is done to build concrete bridges or arches over the creeks without cost to the town, and he will then be able to properly macadamize the road. The matter was laid over until next meeting for further consideration.

On motion of Walker, seconded by Luscher, property owners north of A street and between First and Eighth streets are ordered to construct sidewalks before October 1st. If not done by that time the board will proceed against the owners and compel them to obey the order.

The street superintendent was directed to notify the Southern Pacific that the grade must be conformed to at the milk rack at the corner of A and Arguello street.

Suit for Divorce

Phoebe Hewett has commenced divorce proceedings in the Superior Court against her husband, Frank Hewett. Statutory grounds are the basis of the action.

STORES CLOSE ON FOURTH

The executive committee of the Merchant's Board of Trade of this city at a meeting held Tuesday, decided that all stores should be closed on the Fourth of July, except such as carry fireworks, and that such stores be closed for sale of all other goods. The members of the community are asked to arrange to make their purchases so that the business men and their clerks will be free to celebrate the Natal day in true American style.

M. Cabal, a native of Portugal, aged 26 years, was adjudged insane by Judge Buck, after an examination by Doctors Maine and Barret. His hallucination appears to have been caused by brooding over the earthquake. He was taken to Napa by Sheriff Chatham on Tuesday. Cabal was in jail here charged with raising a check on the Burlingame Club ten months ago, and was arrested in San Jose.

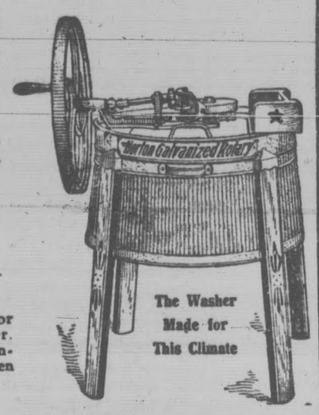
Making Light of a Heavy Washday

This highly improved HORTON Washer will take all the strain of washday off your back and shoulders. While you turn it slowly and easily—without stooping—the HORTON high-speed gear does the work by forcing a hot blast of suds through and through the clothes under a pressure that takes all the dirt out quickly.

You will never realize how easy your washday might be until you have examined this new-idea washer. You will be surprised to find that no matter how slowly you turn the handle the working part of the washer is going at high speed and putting washday behind it almost as fast as you run the clothes through the wringer.

Will you investigate this for yourself? Just step into a good hardware or general store and ask to see the

HORTON
Galvanized Steel Rotary Washer



This is the washer with the GALVANIZED tub. It cannot leak or shrink, and keeps itself sweet and clean, because it does not absorb water. This tub is very light, and stronger than a wooden one. By unfastening a screw the wheel is quickly removed, and the whole washer is then as handy to carry as an ordinary tub.

Warned.

Some years ago Miss Mabel Love was playing the title role in "Little Red Riding Hood" at Dublin. She was entering the room to visit her grandmother in bed when an excited and anxious little voice shouted from the gallery: "Stop, stop! It isn't your grandmother. It's a wolf."

The house burst into a storm of applause and laughter at the child's innocent alarm for the safety of the little maiden in the red hood.

A Great Relief.

"Lady," said Meandering Mike, "do you want any wood chopped?"

"No," was the sharp answer.

"Nor chores of any kind done?"

"No."

"In dat case I feels relieved. I kin take a chance on askin' you fur somethin' to eat."—Washington Star.

MUSICAL TYRANTS.

Trials of the New York Hostess Who Hires Operatic Singers.

Not so very long ago a soprano who had been engaged to sing at one of the largest houses on Fifth avenue, with her maid, was ushered into the room reserved for the artists. She was slow in removing her wraps and concluded after she was part of the way out of them that it was time for the hostess to welcome her.

So she told her maid to put them on again after she had inquired of one of the servants where the lady was. When he saw the preparations for departure he rushed in haste to the hostess.

She had been detained at the dinner table, as a dinner of very elaborate character was preceding the musical. It was difficult for her to leave her guests. She reached the hall, however, just as the singer's ample form was disappearing through the portiere.

"Ah, Mrs. Smith," the singer said. "Then I am in the right house? I was going out to tell my coachman we had made a mistake, else you would have been at the door to meet me."

The hostess looked as if she would like to speed her flight into the open, but her guests were soon to arrive, and she did not dare risk offending the star attraction at her biggest party of the season.

Some of the singers make it a condition that no other woman shall be engaged and no musicians of any kind without consulting them. A young hostess sent out cards to invite her friends to hear a great prima donna sing. Afterward she heard from her friends of all kinds of wonderful performers that she might also have engaged.

As the money question played no part in her plans the young woman began to engage them. By the time the night of the party arrived she had, in addition to the soprano, a band of choir boys who would look beautiful marching down her marble stairway, a band of Venetian gondoliers who would be charming at the entrance to the music room caroling "Santa Lucia," a baritone who sang beautiful love songs in excellent French and a voice as soft as pomade, a girl who could pound the piano with the best of the men players and a quartet that played antique music on near antique instruments.

The prima donna arrived and beheld in the artists' room this job lot of musical entertainers. The hostess hurried in to greet her.

"But surely," the prima donna said, "you don't need me when you have so much for your guests?"

The singer was in earnest. She was perfectly willing to go home and lose her $3,000 fee rather than be part of such a musical vaudeville as the inexperienced hostess had planned. Out of gratitude because she consented to remain to make the party a success, the young matron sent the prima donna a diamond bracelet the next day.

WORK WEAKENS THE KIDNEYS

Doan's Kidney Pills Have Done Great Service for the People Who Work in Redwood City.

Most Redwood people work every day in some strained, unnatual position—bending constantly over a desk, riding on jolting wagons or cars, doing laborious housework; lifting, reaching or pulling, or trying the back in a hundred and one other ways. All these strains tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidneys until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs.

James E. Brown, contracting painter of No 17 Capp street, San Francisco, says: "A man at my occupation required a good sound back. If that part of his anatomy is weak, lame or aches every move of the brush brings torture. Besides, the ingredients used in my calling act directly on the kidneys and aggravate those organs. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills brought me such relief that I bought several more and continued the treatment until the trouble disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's, and take no other.
